Peter and Paul Community Services will launch its website at 3 p.m. on Wednesday, December 15, 2004.

“We’ve wanted to have a web presence for years,” said CEO Steve Campbell, “our hope is that our name and commitment to those less fortunate will begin to reach a broader audience in order to generate much needed support.”

Peter and Paul Community Services in Soulard has provided for the homeless of St. Louis for nearly 25 years. “For too long we’ve been considered a best kept secret amongst area homeless service providers in St. Louis” Campbell noted, “our presence on the web is one way of getting the word out on the important work we do.”
